Rising Voices

“I am alive today because of CAP. They saved my life.”

CAP advocates across the social-ecological spectrum to address all forms of violence at OHSU. Rising Voices is a new program at CAP aimed at amplifying the voices of those most impacted by discrimination, sexual misconduct, and violence. Rising Voices works to identify and advocate for the implementation of organizational and policy changes to stop and prevent violence and ensures members experiencing these harms feel safe and supported. In 2020, 25 policy recommendations were provided to OHSU Administration and the Policy Advisory Committee by CAP Advocates, Volunteers, and members of Rising Voices. Learn more about and join Rising Voices at ohsu.edu/CAP.
