

BLACK AND AFRICAN AMERICAN

PROVIDER RESOURCE GUIDE

2022 MULTNOMAH COUNTY

INTRODUCTION

On a Tuesday in November of 2018, a small group of African American providers gathered in the Urban League conference room on North Russell Street and introduced an idea to create a space where African American providers could meet weekly, network, and unite to help support each other and their clients by sharing resources and collective voices. Food was provided by Multnomah County and the word quickly spread. The group continues to meet regularly.

At the heart of each meeting was a need for an African American resource guide and unified voices to combat systemic racism within our county, city, state, and social services continuum of care.

In 2019, the COVID-19 pandemic began and the African American providers meeting went virtual, meeting biweekly on Tuesdays from 11:45am–1:00pm. The group has since hosted many leaders and directors in the social services continuum of care – voicing our concerns on systemic racism, and plans to serve participants in a way that is caring, dignified, loving, effective, and culturally specific.

What we have produced here is a compilation of providers that the group has identified from the labor of love, care for one another and the work we do. Special thanks and recognition to Darrel White (formerly of the Urban League of Portland), Elissa Black (Central City Concern’s Flip the Script), Donna Harrell and Taylor Steward (Lines for Life), Mariam Ukbazghi (FORA Health, formerly DePaul), and Anthony Jordan and Ebony Sloan-Clarke (Multnomah County Health Department) for their tireless work and belief in the importance of our African American social service network.

Multnomah County recognizes the disproportionate effects of COVID-19 on Black people and has dedicated American Rescue Plan Act Funds towards this provider guide, in hopes of reaching and providing resource information to the community.

May this guide provide love, unity and healing to all who encounter it. If you would like to come to future meetings and be included in future projects, please contact Mariam Ukbazghi at Mariam.Ukbazghi@forahealth.org.

Sincerely Yours,
Larry Turner
